Will Somebody Tell?

Why is McIntosh, chairman of the state democratic committee, opposed to the printing of briefs for submission to the supreme court? It does not take the seventh daughter of a seventh daughter or one born with a caul to answer this question. The printers of Tonopah, or in the state, for that matter, can tell They know better than any one else. Mr. McIntosh gained a little brief notoriety in his native bailiwick by prating about the rights of the plain people against the encroachments of corporation greed. He promised to do things that would set Tonopah in a whirl. The corporations were to be stretched out on the rack and lambasted to a fare you well. But he never landed the solar plexus punch that was to liberate the taxpayers. As a monthy effervescent ranter from the south of the slot school he stands pre-eminent. In other respects the business men of Tonopah would be pleased to hear of his selection for appointment to the court of Dahomey for the choice would remove an incubus that has always been a sore burden on their

When the State Editorial association meets at the capital it may have something to say about attorneys who oppose the printing of supreme court briefs, and there is a strong suspicion that something sensational will be sprung. The men who would retrograde are of the class who prefer to adhere to the old quill pen for legal purposes and whose clientage would rather see the state stick in the mire of mossbackism rather than see it keep pace with the progress of the country.

The average lawyer never made a reputation for conciseness or condensed thought and at best a printed brief is voluminous enough to tax the hefting ability of the justices who have to handle them. Should the legislature be foolish enough to go backward and insist on the introduction of hand written tomes it might be well to consider the cost of building an addition to the supreme court chambers for storage purposes.

Playing Peanut Politics

What a travesty on the legislative qualities of a commonwealth like Nevada and the majesty of our statesmen! Elko county has a bill "providing for the appointment of cooks and stewards at the Elko county Now is the time for the business men of both houses to get together on a sensible bill for the classification of counties and clear the capitol of all the frivilous rubbish that pertains to the sessions of county commissioners. If not, then let the legislature fix the scale for pot wrestlers and scullions in each separate county and let public business go to the dogs.

Esmeralda county is another example of the necessity for doing things forthwith. Relief is necessary. The county commissioners have emitted a loud protest against the lusty deputies who are burglarizing the treasury every month under the pretext of serving the public in any old capacity that brings a warrant. Common report states that Esmeralda warrants are down to 60 cents on the dollar and the husky officeholders fear they will have to resign and work for a living unless something is done to head off their creditors.

This is the time for the solons to act and they should act promptly. With the divorce bill laid to rest with the sad, solemn dirges of the Reno colony for an accompaniment, other important measures should be taken up promptly.

Clean the Streets

The best way to clean up a town of the low classes which neither work nor spin but which are arrayed in all the glories of Solomon is to place them at work on the streets and alleys of the town. This class of gentry, like the mule, has no pride in ancestry or hope in posterity and therefore they have no pride in the appearance of the town other than that which inures to their own profit. In the restricted quarter of Tonopah the chief of police has begun to pick up a number of characters who have no visible means of support, and his efforts should be supplemented by an order consigning such prisoners to the rock pile. In the absence of such an institution there should be some means of utilizing their efforts to advance the public good. For instance, nothing could be better for the sanitary condition of the town than to have these gentlemen of love brisk themselves in the early dawn in the laudable effort to clean up the streets and alleys. That their usefumess would not be of long duration is past saying as, under the circumstances, they would soon find more congenial fields to cultivate. A few days with a long handled shovel and a ball and chain entwined around their nether limbs would soon cure such people of their love for the effete life of the slums. The present board of county commissioners is disposed to do everything in its power to effect a saving in the conduct of the county and it is dollars to doughnuts that they would soon be greeted by an empty jail were they to adopt drastic measures for the employment of hangers on in the lower quarters.

Some one must have run in a cold dock on Assemblyman Kelliher when they asked him to father the bill providing for compalacry physical examination of students attending the public schools. The mothers of the state are after the pulntice tather of the measure and he has been subjected to a rapid fire lattery of questions which he prefers to dodze until he can get better acquainted with the real significance of the bill which was folated on him.

Esmeralda county is showing the influence of a powerful organ at the county seat. The delegation from Goldfield went solidly for a coninputtion of the divorce evil. But then it should not be forgotten that ... diffield has been sharing the divorce ple...

Excursion trains to Carson City are favored nowadays, but the swan song of the siren element in the state's commercial metropolis resounds above the orgies of the battle cry of freedom.
